

A Prayer for you, Dear Dwight

*For the Lord may you be found living,
Unselfish love for others giving,
And thus by this many souls winning,
Loyal to the end.*

*Peace, joy, and cheer to others bringing,
Not just in joy but in grief still singing,
Thoughts of future bliss, trusting, dreaming,
Joyful to the end.*

*In the precious promises believing,
Emptied of self, the love of God revealing,
And thus the joy of Christ receiving,
Faithful to the end.*

*Your hopes and dreams to others sharing,
The cross of Christ for others caring,
Each day eternity preparing,
Fruitful to the end.*

*Always for others ever hoping,
Steadfast and patient always coping,
Endure forever, never stopping,
Prayerful to the end.*

*So watch the seeds that you are casting,
And when at last this world is passing,
You'll be sure of life everlasting,
Dutiful to the end.*

*And when life's cares and toils are ceasing,
May your deeds to God be pleasing.
Then your joy be ever increasing,
And never, never end.*
