Love's Love

A poem for the One so deserving
For thirty years of love unswerving

Fully knew challenges foreboding
Trusted His love in you, encoding

Wanting her complete restoration
In the end both would find salvation

Through tests and trials and tribulation
Resulting finally in re-creation

Relishing life for everlasting
In love with His Love so enchanting

Who sought the world through and through
Finally choosing the perfect two

To bond forever with love amazing
In love with Love fully embracing

In thankfulness set the world aglow
With Love's love they've come to know

In the Garden God chose two to entrust
May His desire be fulfilled in us

Always reveal that incredible Love
Known and embraced in the Heavens above

Returning to You a little of the bliss
The wonder of love with which we've been kissed

Thank you Lord, for your perfect insight
And blessing me with the one known as, Dwight

Anniversary Number Thirty, 2016