Dear Dwight

36th Anniversary 2022

Here we are at seventy and seventy one
Can't say we've barely just begun
Half our lives we've spent together
Hoping "we" will be forever

Who knows how many more years
We'll enjoy before the tears
And the breaking of a heart
When at last we'll be apart

So for now let us not forget
To cherish what we have and not regret
Each day so precious gone so fast
Opportunities to love have passed

Lord, help me love him as he needs
Never hurting with words or deeds
That he might ever experience the love
That can only come from You above
